

New York Daily News

Sunday, February 24, 2008

Dream Honeymoons Start at

Aruba's Bucuti

Located in the southern Caribbean outside of the humidity zone, Aruba is one of the best honeymoon destinations for reliably beautiful weather.

The island is warm, sunny and breezy year-round and the beaches are some of the most gorgeous in all of the Caribbean.

If you're looking for a honeymoon spot that offers the perfect combination of freedom and luxury, check out Bucuti Beach Resort and Tara Beach Suites and Spa. Centered between downtown Oranjestad and Palm Beach on Eagle Beach, in Aruba. Bucuti is a European style resort that offers full facilities including dining, concierge, fitness center, gift shop and much more. All the conveniences of an all-inclusive are at your fingertips, but you have the freedom to explore and do what you want, when you want.

In addition to a died-and-gone-to-heaven beach, the resort offers easy access to world-class shopping in nearby Oranjestad, as well as the gift shops at the Alhambra shopping bazaar and casino complex adjacent to the resort.

Bucuti is Aruba's most romantic getaway resort and with that in mind they put together the One Happy Honeymoon package. Newlyweds will enjoy a room with a balcony or terrace, a bottle of chilled champagne upon arrival, candlelight dinner for two on the beach at Bucuti's Pirates' Nest Restaurant, a snorkeling trip or sunset sailing cruise and a gift basket. The resort also loves to play host to weddings, and has great wedding, anniversary and special event packages.

Bucuti's full-time concierge staff will also organize any sport, water sport or tour for your enjoyment, most of which provide free transportation. Aruba's unique geography is home to a wide range of flora and fauna, as well as several species of unusual birds. For rates, package details real-time reservations and a live peek of the beach on the BucutiCam, visit www.bucuti.com.