

Bucuti News

As the sun sets on 2021, we bring you glad tidings and helpful updates about your Aruba home away from home.

In this issue, it's our pleasure to answer your questions below about traveling to and from Aruba and how we are keeping you safe and healthy. Along those lines, you'll also discover how just last month, Bucuti & Tara was an honoree at the United Nations' Climate Change Conference, better known as COP26, for doing our part in keeping the planet we all share, healthy.

Like you, this time of year we love traditional holiday meals, such as the Aruban Ayacas recipe included below. Looking ahead to 2022, we also share how a new Google travel trends research study reveals that all roads lead to Bucuti & Tara.

We hope you enjoy our news and look forward to your next visit!
