

Bucuti News

Golden Greetings from Eagle Beach! Rich amber sunsets and a harvest of relaxing experiences is how we do autumn here at Bucuti & Tara - we hope you'll join us.

In this edition, discover our new "baby book," meet our new wellness leadership duo, and discover some of our furry four-legged friends. Also, see how guests, staff, and community members join together on island and with the global community to keep Aruba beautiful for your next visit.

*- Ewald Biemans
peace, love & happiness...naturally*

Announcing Bucuti's Babies

We've recently learned that as Tripadvisor's No. 1 Hotel for Romance in the Caribbean, we've kept the stork quite busy. As couples become families, their sweet stories and pictures prompted the launch of #BucutiBabies. Enjoy perusing our new baby book. If you have a Bucuti's Babies story of your own, we welcome you to share.

Link to story: <https://www.bucuti.com/news/blog/calling-all-bucutibabies>

Your Wellness, Perfected

Meet Bjorn and Natalie, the dynamic husband and wife team and specialists who are now leading Bucuti & Tara's all-encompassing wellness program. They are available to help you along your continuum of wellness during your next vacation.

Link to story: <https://www.bucuti.com/wellness/blog/meet-bjorn-natalie-new-leadership-bucuti-taras-wellness-program>

International Coastal Cleanup 2022 Makes Twice the Impact

More than 100 volunteers joined together for International Coastal Cleanup Day on Sept. 17 to keep Aruba beautiful and to ensure that sea turtle hatchlings have a safe path as they take their first steps to the Caribbean Sea. This year, the group of resort guests, staff, and community members collect double the debris over last year.

Link to story: <https://www.bucuti.com/news/blog/protecting-health-sea-and-all-who-live-there-international-coastal-clean>

Love Me, Spay and Neuter Me! Stimami y Sterilisami fundraising event a smashing success

Founded by Bucuti & Tara, Stimami y Sterilisami is Aruba's spay and neuter foundation. Since 2016, it has prevented thousands of homeless dogs and cats from suffering. This year's collaborative local hotels and businesses sidewalk sale raised 35,000 Aruban Florins (or almost US $19,500) with 100% of funds collected for the life-changing nonprofit.

Link to story: <https://www.bucuti.com/news/blog/afl-35000-raised-towards-stimami-sterilisami-subsidized-spay-and-neuter-pets>

United Nations Sustainable Development Goals Week 2022

As the Caribbean's first certified carbon-neutral hotel, Bucuti & Tara is dedicated to caring for the planet as much as we care for every guest. Discover how Aruba and Bucuti & Tara are achieving the 17 SDG goals through people, prosperity, planet, peace and partnerships during SDG Week, Sept. 19-23 so you can discover the best of our island home.

Link to story: <https://www.bucuti.com/news/blog/our-support-United-nations-sustainable-development-goals-sdgs>